Attorneys for Defendant
ORECK CORPORATION

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

GINA CHENIER and GAYA YOSRI
on Behalf of Themselves and All Others Similarly Situated,

Plaintiffs,

v.

ORECK CORPORATION, a Delaware
Corporation,

Defendant.

) Case No. CV 11-05321 CAS (JEMx)

) PROTECTIVE ORDER FOR ) DISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENTIAL
) MATERIALS

) Hon. Christina A. Snyder, Judge

) Hon. John E. McDermott, Magistrate Judge

1           Whereas Gina Chenier and Gaya Yosri (“Plaintiffs”) filed claims
2 against Oreck Corporation (“Defendant”) on their own behalf and that of a putative
3 class;

5           Whereas, Defendant denies the claims brought by Plaintiffs;

7           Whereas the Parties hereto are engaged in discovery, which may 8 involve the disclosure of confidential, proprietary, technical, business and financial 9 information;
10

11           Whereas, the Parties hereto seek to preserve their privacy and 12 property interests in such information, without unduly encroaching on the public’s 13 right to be informed of judicial proceedings, and recognizing that the party seeking 14 to protect information filed under seal with the Court must show good cause for 15 sealing that part of the record and that either party and any interested member of 16 the public can challenge any designation of confidentiality pursuant to this 17 protective order; and 18
20

21           Whereas, the Parties and counsel will act in good faith in designating
22 records pursuant to the protections provided by this Protective Order;
23
25
26
27
28

1 Accordingly, the Parties, by their respective counsel, hereby stipulate
2 to the entry of the following Protective Order pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c).
3 The Parties agree that the exchange of confidential, proprietary, trade secret and 4 sensitive information between the Parties and/or third parties other than in 5 accordance with this Protective Order may cause unnecessary damage and injury to 6 the Parties and to others, and therefore good cause exists to limit public disclosure
7 of this information.

10
11 1. This Stipulation and Protective Order governs the use and handling of 12 documents, testimony, interrogatory responses and other information, including all 13 copies, excerpts and summaries thereof (collectively, the “Material”) produced or 14 provided by Oreck Corporation (“Defendant”) or any other individual or entity, 15 including non-parties in this Litigation (collectively, with the Plaintiffs and the 16 Defendant, the “Producing Party”) in pre-trial proceedings in this Litigation.
17

19 2. As used herein:

20 a. “Document” means any written, printed, typed, graphic,
21 electronic or otherwise recorded matter of any kind, however 22 produced or reproduced, including but not limited to:

23
24 i. all originals, nonidentical copies, intermediate drafts and 25 revisions of any written matter; and 26
27
28

1                   ii.     all deposition transcripts, exhibits, affidavits,
2                               interrogatories, answers to interrogatories or other
3                               litigation materials.

5           b.     “Confidential Information” means sensitive or proprietary non-
6                   public information, regardless of whether in a Document,
7                   electronically stored or orally communicated, and includes all 8                   information extracted from Documents containing such 9                   sensitive or proprietary non-public information.

10
11           c.     “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” as used herein means Confidential
12                   Information that the Producing Party believes in good faith is so 13                   sensitive that it should be disclosed only to those persons listed in 14                   paragraph 6 below.

16           d.     “Person” means an individual, corporation, partnership,
17                   association, unincorporated organization, governmental entity,
18                   quasi-governmental entity or any other entity, including, without 19                   limitation, each party to this action, experts and consultants for 20                   any party.

21
22           e.     “Party” or “Parties” means the parties to this Action and 23                   includes their officers, employees, and attorneys.
24
25
26
27
28

1 f. “Produce” means to provide documents or information to a Party,
2 whether pursuant to settlement discussions or in response to 3 discovery requests.

5 g. “Disclose” means to furnish, divulge, reveal, describe,
6 summarize, paraphrase, quote, transmit or otherwise
7 communicate documents or information received from any 8 other party or third-party witness to any other person or party, 9 whether voluntarily or involuntarily, whether pursuant to 10 request, interrogatory or process, and whether pursuant to the 11 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or otherwise;
12

13 h. The “Litigation” refers to the above-captioned litigation;
14

15 i. “Expert” refers to a person retained or specially employed by a 16 party to assist in preparation for trial or to testify at trial. The term
17 also includes all employees of such person.
18

19 3. All “Confidential Information” or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” Material
20 (as defined herein) produced in this Litigation shall be used only for the purpose of 21 settlement, prosecution or defense of the claims in this Litigation. “The purpose of 22 this Litigation” does not include use of the Material by Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs’
23 counsel or other parties provided access pursuant to this Protective Order to solicit,
24 contact, communicate or otherwise interact with Oreck customers who are not 25
26
27
28

1 clients of plaintiff's counsel with respect to Oreck without leave of Court. Nothing
2 in this order will prohibit Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs' counsel or other parties to use other
3 means to solicit, contact, communicate or otherwise interact with Oreck customers
5 Persons to whom any Confidential Information or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material is 6 disclosed under the circumstances set forth above shall not disclose any such 7 material to any other person and shall not use any such material for any purpose
9 other than the settlement, prosecution or defense of the claims in this Litigation.

10 4. The Producing Party may designate as "Confidential" any Material
11 which it produces in this Litigation, which contains settlement negotiations, trade 12 secrets or other confidential research, development, or commercial information for 13 which a good faith claim of need of protection from disclosure can be made. The 14 Producing Party may designate as "Attorneys' Eyes Only" any Material it produces
15
16 in this Litigation that contains trade secrets or other highly confidential research, 17 development, or commercial information for which a good faith claim of need of 18 protection from disclosure (including protection from disclosure to persons other 19 than attorneys or as otherwise allowed herein) can be made. The Parties 20 affirmatively represent that they will use their best efforts to limit designations to 21 those documents and that information which constitute confidential, sensitive 22 commercial and/or proprietary information.
23
25
26
27
28

1           5. Confidential Material may be provided only to counsel of record for 2 the parties and, absent written consent from the Producing Party or unless 3 otherwise directed by the Court, may be disclosed by such counsel only to the 4 following persons:

- 6           (a) attorneys of record appearing this Litigation, including regular
7 and temporary employees, contractors and agents of those
8 attorneys of record;
- 9           (b) outside experts or consultants retained to assist in the 10 preparation of this case by any attorney described in 11 subparagraph (a) above, as well as employees of such experts or 12 consultants, in order to assist in the conduct of this Litigation,
13 but only to the extent that, and for the time during which, such 14 disclosure is necessary for the performance of such assistance;
- 15           (c) outside photocopying, graphic production services or litigation
16 support services employed by the parties or their counsel to
17 assist in this Litigation, and computer service personnel
18 performing duties in relation to a computerized litigation
19 system;
- 20           (d) plaintiffs, employees and agents of the Parties for purposes
21 related to this Litigation;
- 22           (e) the Court, witnesses (including deponents), court reporters,
23 stenographers, videographers, court personnel, jurors and
24 alternate jurors, if any; and
- 25           (f) other persons to whom the Court specifically allows disclosure,
26 after application by the party seeking such disclosure and an
27 opportunity to reply by the Producing Party or Parties.
28

6. Attorneys' Eyes Only Material may be provided only to counsel of record for the parties and, absent written consent from the Producing Party or

1 unless otherwise directed by the Court, may be disclosed by such counsel only to 2 the following persons:

- 3 (a) attorneys of record appearing this Litigation, including regular
 4 and temporary employees, contractors and agents of those
 5 attorneys of record;
- 6 (b) outside experts or consultants retained to assist in the
 7 preparation of this case by any attorney described in 8 subparagraph (a) above, as well as employees of such expert or
 9 consultants, in order to assist in the conduct of this Litigation,
 10 but only to the extent that, and for the time during which, such
 11 disclosure is necessary for the performance of such assistance;
- 12 (c) outside photocopying, graphic production services or litigation
 13 support services employed by the parties or their counsel to
 14 assist in this Litigation, and computer service personnel
 15 performing duties in relation to a computerized litigation
 16 system;
- 17 (d) the Court, witnesses (including deponents), court reporters,
 18 stenographers, videographers, court personnel, jurors and
 19 alternate jurors, if any; and
- 20 (e) other persons to whom the Court specifically allows disclosure,
 21 after application by the party seeking such disclosure and an
 22 opportunity to reply by the Producing Party or Parties.

23 7. Each person given access to Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only 24 Material, pursuant to the terms hereof, shall be advised that the Confidential or 25 Attorneys' Eyes Only Material is being disclosed pursuant to and subject to the 26 terms of this Stipulation and Protective Order and may not be disclosed or used
 27 other than pursuant to the terms hereof. Before any person described in paragraph 28 5(b), 5(c), 5(d), witnesses under 5(e) unless they authored the document, 5(f), or

1 6(b), 6(c), witnesses under 6(d) unless they authored the document, or 6(e) above
2 is given access to Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material, that person must
3 read and agree in writing, by signing an acknowledgement in the form attached
4 hereto as Exhibit A, to be bound by the provisions of this Stipulation and 5 Protective Order.

7 8. In the event that counsel for any Party or Producing Party desires to 8 file with the Court any document which includes any Confidential or Attorneys'
9 Eyes Only Material, or any papers containing or making reference to the contents
10 of such material or information, such document shall be submitted for filing
11 separately in a sealed envelope pursuant to Central District of California Local 12 Rule 79-5.1, upon which shall prominently appear a statement substantially similar 13 to the following:
14
15
16

17 "This envelope contains documents subject to a 18 Stipulated Protective Order concerning the use of 19 confidential discovery material entered by the Court in 20 this action. This envelope shall not be opened, nor shall 21 the contents be displayed or revealed except by order of 22 the Court. Violation hereof may be regarded as a
23 contempt of court."

24 9. The designation of Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material for 25 the purposes of this Stipulation and Protective Order shall be made in the following 26 manner:

27 (a) In the case of documents, interrogatory answers or other
28 materials (apart from depositions or other pretrial testimony):

1 by affixing the legend "CONFIDENTIAL" or "ATTORNEYS'
2 EYES ONLY" to each page containing any Confidential (or, as 3 applicable, Attorneys' Eyes Only) Material. If not practical to 4 mark each page of a document, as in the case of a bound
5 publication or documents provided in digital form, the cover of 6 such bound document or the applicable storage media shall be 7 so marked. If not practical to so mark the material itself, a
8 container for or a tag attached to the material shall be so 9 marked.

- 10 (b) In the case of depositions or other pretrial testimony: (i) by a 11 statement on the record, by counsel, at the time of such 12 disclosure; or (ii) by written notice, sent by counsel to all 13 Parties within thirty (30) days after receipt of the transcript of 14 the deposition by any counsel of record for the parties to the 15 action. All transcripts shall be considered Confidential and 16 subject to this Protective Order until expiration of such thirty 17 (30) day period. The only exception to this thirty day period is 18 where the deposition transcript is first transcribed and delivered
19 less than thirty days before a court deadline for which a party
20 desires to use the transcript and, in that event, the written notice
21 is due within five (5) business days of receipt of the transcribed
22 deposition by the designating party provided that the party
23 intending the use the transcript has notified all parties in writing 24 of the invocation of the five day period before the transcript is 25 received. Under these circumstances, the transcript is 26 considered Confidential during that five day period.

27 10. Inadvertent disclosure of Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only 28 Material to an opposing party without identifying the same shall not be deemed a waiver of confidentiality with regard to the material inadvertently disclosed, nor shall it be deemed a waiver of confidentiality with regard to similar material. Any such material inadvertently disclosed without the applicable designation shall be

1 identified by the disclosing party with a demand that it be marked with the 2 appropriate designation as required by this Stipulation and Protective Order.

3 11. If a Producing Party inadvertently produces information which the 4 Producing Party believes is subject to a claim of attorney-client privilege, work
5 product immunity or any other privilege or immunity, such production shall in no
6 way prejudice or constitute a waiver of, or estoppel as to, any claim of privilege, 7 work product or other ground for withholding production of such information to 8 which the Producing Party would otherwise be entitled. Any such inadvertently
9 produced information shall be returned promptly to the Producing Party upon 10 request and all copies destroyed upon request. Within fourteen (14) days of the 11 return of such information, the Producing Party must list it on a written log 12 pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5).
13
15
16

17 12. A party or any other person objecting to the designation of 18 Confidential Information/Attorney Eyes Only shall provide written notice of the 19 objection to the designating party, specifying the materials that are the subject of 20 the objection and detailed grounds for the objection. Within seven (7) days after 21 such objection, the parties and any other objecting person(s) shall confer in good 22 faith in an effort to resolve the objections. If such conference does not resolve the 23 objection or does not take place within seven days, then the designating person
24 may apply to the Court, by motion, for a ruling that material designated by a party
25
26
27
28

1 as Confidential Information/Attorney Eyes Only shall be treated as Confidential
2 Information/Attorney Eyes Only. The designating party shall have the burden of 3 demonstrating the propriety of that designation. Pending determination by the 4 Court, material designated by a party as Confidential Information/Attorney Eyes
5 Only shall be treated as initially designated and provided in this Order. Failure of 6 the designating party to apply for a ruling within seven (7) days of such conference 7 or expiration of the conference time frame waives its right to confidentiality for 8 such documents unless this time is extended by mutual consent of the parties.
9 Frivolous challenges to the designations, and those made for an improper purpose
10 (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may 11 expose the objecting party to sanctions.
12
13
14

15 13. Nothing in this Protective Order shall limit the Producing Party or 16 person from using its/his/her own documents and information in any fashion
17 it/he/she may desire.
18

19 14. This Protective Order shall in no way affect or impair the right of any 20 Party or person to raise or assert any defense or objection, including, but not 21 limited to, defenses or objections to the discovery or production of documents
22 or information and to the use, relevance or admissibility at trial of any evidence,
23 whether or not comprised of documents or information governed by this Protective 24 Order. Oreck shall not assert or argue that Plaintiff is not an adequate class
25
26
27
28

1 representative or is uninformed about this litigation or being controlled by his
2 counsel because Plaintiffs are unaware of or unfamiliar with Materials that Oreck
3 has designated as “Attorneys Eyes Only.”

5 15. The final determination or settlement of the Litigation shall not relieve 6 any Party or person who has received Confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only
7 Material from the obligations imposed by this Protective Order. Within sixty (60)
8 days of the termination of this action, including all appeals, all Confidential and 9 Attorneys’ Eyes Only Material supplied by any Producing Party, and all copies
10 thereof, shall be returned to the Producing Party or shall be certified to have been 11 destroyed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, counsel are entitled to keep archival 12 copies of all pleadings, motion papers, transcripts, legal memoranda, 13 correspondence or other attorney work product, even if such items contain or have 14 attached to them or reference Confidential Material or Attorneys Eyes Only 15 Material.
16

17 16. The Parties agree to be bound by the terms of this Stipulation and 18 Protective Order until such time as the Court shall rule thereon and, thereafter, the 19 Parties shall be bound by the ruling of the Court.
20

21 17. If any person receiving Material covered by this Stipulation and 22 Protective Order is subpoenaed in another action or proceeding or served with a 23 document demand, and such subpoena or document demand seeks Material which
25
26
27
28

1 was produced or designated as Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material by 2 any Producing Party, the person receiving the subpoena or document demand shall
3 give written notice within seven (7) days of service of such subpoena or document
4 demand to counsel for the Producing Party and shall not produce the documents
5 until the later of: (1) thirty (30) days after service of such subpoena or document
6 demand; or (2) the time designated in the subpoena or document demand.

9 18. In the event that a Party produces documents subject to another
10 confidentiality agreement or protective order, the Parties agree to keep such 11 documents confidential in accordance with the terms of any such agreement or 12 order, as long as the Producing Party furnishes a copy of such agreement or order 13 to all parties in advance of, or contemporaneously with, its production of any 14 documents covered by such agreement or order and any such party has an 15 opportunity to object to any terms of any such agreement or order by way of the 16 mechanism set forth in Paragraph 12.
17
18

19 19. Nothing in this Stipulation and Protective Order shall be construed to 20 prevent a Party or nonparty from seeking such further provisions regarding 21 confidentiality as may be appropriate.
22

23 ///

24 ///

25 ///

1           20. Nothing in this Stipulation and Protective Order shall be construed as
2 a waiver by a Party of any objections that might be raised as to admissibility at trial
3 of any evidentiary materials.

DISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS:
CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

I, _____ [print or type full name], of _____ [print or type full address], declare under penalty of perjury that I understand that any documents or information disclosed to me designated as "Confidential Information" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only" in the above-captioned Litigation shall be used only for the purpose of prosecution,

1 defense, or settlement of the claims in this Litigation. "The purpose of this
2 Litigation" does not include use of the documents or information by Plaintiffs,
3 Plaintiffs' counsel or other parties provided access pursuant to this Protective
4 Order to solicit, contact, communicate or otherwise interact with Oreck customers
5 who are not clients of Plaintiffs' counsel with respect to Oreck without leave of 6 Court. I further understand that I am to not disclose any such material to any other 7 person and shall not use any such material for any purpose other than the 8 settlement, prosecution or defense of the claims in this Litigation. I hereby
